Career

Aaron Kwok joined the HK-TVB Dancers company in 1984 where, from the outset, his obvious talent and vibrant charisma as a dancer created an immediate impact. Aaron Kwok is currently one of Hong Kong and Asia's most admired singing and dance stars. His outstanding talent as a dancer and his sensational singing voice definitely charm audiences who see him as one of the age's four superstar entertainers. Over the years, he has won over a hundred music awards. Not only has Aaron Kwok enjoyed a highly successful career as a leading pop singer for over a decade now, his obvious passion for dance continues unabated and he has continued to develop and refine his technique, artistry and creativity. As a solo performer, his sell-out concerts in Hong Kong, Mainland China, the USA, Canada, Singapore, Malaysia and other countries total over 200 to date, each offering a truly memorable occasion. Always choreographed with great artistry and highly dramatic effect and delivered with impeccable technique, emotional sensitivity and spectacular bravura, his stage performances have won him universal acclaim. Not surprisingly, he has been dubbed "King of the Stage" by the entertainment industry. In 2008, Aaron's concert: Aaron Kwok De Show Reel Extension Live Concert 2008 at the Asia World Arena, Hong Kong, create a new Guinness World Records: The largest revolving stage measured 10m x 9.44m (32ft10in x 31ft) on 17 Feb 2008

As a creative artist, Aaron Kwok's talents are uniquely multifaceted, reflecting his peerless excellence in countless aspects of entertainment – as a chart-topping singer, a leading film actor and a familiar figure in commercials. What's more, his public service and charitable work is extensive and diverse. In recognition of both his professional and his voluntary work, he received the "Ten Most Outstanding Young Persons" Award in 2003. "At the Taiwan's 42nd Golden Horse Awards ceremony in 2005, Aaron was the surprise winner of Best Leading Actor Award for his role in the film "Divergency". It was his first Golden Horse nomination. Aaron won the Award again in 2006, becoming only the second actor in the history of the Golden Horse Awards to win the Best Actor Award consecutively. Jackie Chang first accomplished this back in the 1990's".

Aaron Kwok's manifold achievements as well as his ceaseless quest for perfection and innovation throughout his career have earned him a loyal following of enthusiastic admirers, the respect of his peers and widespread popularity worldwide. Of all the performing arts at which Aaron excels, stage appearances remain his perennial favorite. In addition, Aaron Kwok has starred in various movies, television drama series and commercials.
