Career

Denise Keller is one of the regions most dynamic rising celebrities. Her career to become one of the most famous faces in South East Asia was kicked-started after being spotted by a French photographer and garnering her first modeling contract at the tender age of 13. Winning the Ford Supermodel of the World Singapore title in 2000 only put her in greater demand within the fashion fraternity.

Singapore born and raised, Eurasian Denise successfully modeled in New York, Hong Kong and Tokyo. In 2002, heralded Denise securing the coveted role as the lead female VJ for MTV Asia. Now every morning millions of people across Asia wake up to the charisma of Denise Keller. Much more than an MTV VJ - Denise is renowned model, brand ambassador, TV presenter and elegant fashionista.

Denise has graced the covers and featured in many magazines including Elle, Female, Her World, Icon, New Woman, style, Harper's Bazaar, NuYou and Cleo to name just a few. From Korea to Dubai, to Tokyo and Singapore, Denise has been lucky enough to work with some of the regions leading photographers, make up artists and hair stylists.

Denise has been the face of many print and television commercial campaigns world-wide including Red Earth, Witch Hazel, LG, Shiseido, Plains and Prints (Philippines), Redken, Ponds, Sportsgirl, Samsung, Max Factor, Lane Crawford, Biore, Nokia, Takashimaya, DeBeers and Toshiba. Denise currently endorses Longines and recently she scooped the contract as the inaugural Asia Pacific fashion ambassador for MasterCard which will see her feature in a high profile 'Priceless Moments'.

At only 27, Denise recently diversified her talent and enrolled in an acting course at the famed New York acting school, the Lee Strasberg Institute. Denise hopes to further her acting studies and return to Lee Strasberg in the future.
